Dear Mr. Hawa:

Re: InvestorsHub.com Inc. (“iHub”) et al. ats. Mina Mar Group Inc. et al.
Court File No. CV-08-00364413

I refer to my letter of December 14, 2010. Thank you for your without prejudice e-mails. At this point, it is more appropriate (and administratively less onerous) to simply comply strictly with the Judgment as I outlined in my with prejudice letter of December 14, 2010. As a result, we have enclosed the signed apology of iHub which was posted yesterday on the iHub website and will remain in place until Monday, December 20, 2010. My client has removed the Mina Mar bulletin boards, as requested, and has removed the offending postings referred to in your client’s statement of claim and the postings referenced in Mr. Longbow’s affidavit of June 9, 2010. As indicated in my letter of December 14, 2010 my client is also removing all references to the plaintiffs (i.e., any references to “Mina Mar Group Inc.,” “Mina Mar” or “Miro Zecevic”) from the iHub website which removal will be complete by December 30, 2010. In addition, the agreed upon user identification information has been disclosed today to Mina Mar’s Florida counsel as part of the Florida proceedings.

In the circumstances, we would again ask that the plaintiffs’ contempt motion be withdrawn. If your clients refuse, then I expect to receive your factum on Monday, December 20th when it is due and we will deliver our responding material and factum on December 23, 2010 in accordance with the Rules and will ask for costs at the hearing of the motion.
